CORONAVIRUS LATEST

DRIVING TESTS

DVSA has suspended car and motorcycle driving tests for up to 3 months from 21 March .

The agency has put in place plans to provide tests for people who provide essential services. You should have heard from the DVSA if you had a test booked in this period. The DVSA have said they will automatically re-book your tests.

All theory tests have been cancelled until Monday 20 April 2020 and refunds will be issues.

If your test has been suspended with less than 3 days notices, you and your pupils will be able to claim out of pocket expenses.

The DVSA will be monitoring the emerging situation and will let us know if the situation changes.

A testing service will still be available for critical workers across the UK. If you are one of these workers, you can email the DVSA on covid19essentialworksdrivingtest@dvsa.gov.uk and the agency will make arrangements for you.

DRIVING LESSONS

As a driving instructor, I come in to contact with students and their family/school friends etc. It is good practice for me to do everything I can to prevent the spread of any virus, and help protect myself and my pupils from infection.

If any pupils or any close family members have been affected by the Coronavirus we would ask you to let us know. It is your responsibility to advise me asap if you think you are at risk of being infected or have any symptoms such as a cough or fever. Please be flexible and realistic in the current climate as, we will be, at Vogue Driving School.

Basic hygiene measures also prevent the spread of infection. We recommend you keep hand sanitiser with you. Carry tissues for coughs and sneezes. We will wipe down the steering wheel, gearstick, etc between lessons with a Dettol spray. We will keep our car well ventilated where possible, and advise all pupils to follow general NHS advice on hygiene matters.

Vogue will keep you informed as much as possible.

Hope we can all stay safe.

Thankyou

Regards

Guy and Olivia
